14:15 Palau Reial metro stop (L3-green line).

14:45 Plaça Catalunya metro stop (L3-green line).

15:00 Visit Palau de la Música. It is one of the most representative monuments of the modernist architecture. UNESCO declared it a World Heritage Site in 1997. It was built between 1905 and 1908 by the great architect Lluís Domènech i Montaner.

16:00 Modernist route. It will include:

- Casa Lleó Morera. Lluís Domènech i Montaner remodeled the previous building, making it a truly modernist work of art.
- Casa Amatller. Superb modernist building by Josep Puig i Cadafalch.
- Casa Batlló. It is the most emblematic work of Antoni Gaudí.
- Casa Milà. It is popularly known as 'La Pedrera' (the stone quarry). Antoni Gaudí constructed it between 1906 and 1912.
- Sagrada Família. It is Antoni Gaudí's best-known work and has become an undisputed symbol of Barcelona. It has been under construction since 1882 and is expected to be completed by 2030.
- Hospital de la Santa Creu i Sant Pau. Came into being in 1401 with the merging of the six hospitals in the city of Barcelona at that time. By the late nineteenth century it became too small. Lluís Domènech i Montaner remodelled it.
