

A Posteriori Error Estimates for Cut Finite Element Method with Boundary Correction

Erik Burman, Cuiyu He and Mats G. Larson

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE LONDON

Abstract

In this work we study the a posteriori error estimation for the CutFEM method on elliptic problems. We consider the problem with non-polygonal boundary and the analysis and computation take into account the error caused by the approximations of the the boundary and boundary data. The reliability and efficiency are proved to be robust on the location of boundary-domain intersection.