

ir. JOHAN VYNCKE

Director Research & Innovation, Belgian Building Research Institute – BBRI

Graduated as Civil Engineer at the State University of Ghent, 1981

1981-1988: Research Fellow of the National Fund for Scientific Research (Nationaal Fonds voor Wetenschappelijk Onderzoek - NFWO), linked to the Magnel Laboratory for concrete research – State University Ghent.

1988-today - Belgian Building Research Institute.

Johan Vyncke is active in different associations amongst others as:

- Member of the EC RTD group (European Project Coordination Group) and member of the Board of the European Network of Building Research Institutes (ENBRI) www.enbri.org as representative of BBRI
- Member of the Board and the Executive Comité of the Belgian Concrete Society (BBG)
- Member of the Board of Probeton (Certification of Concrete)
- Member of the redaction committee of “Het Ingenieursblad” review of the Flemish Engineering association KVIV
- Administrator of GreenBizz www.greenbizz.be an incubation centre for startups
- President of RILEM “International Union of Laboratories and Experts in Construction Materials, Systems and Structures” www.rilem.org

Related to some earlier RILEM work in TC 121-DRG Johan Vyncke has been the coordinator of the Belgian Humanitarian Project in Pakistan “Kashmir Recovery Recycling Rehabilitation - Belgian Transition Aid Support Project” on behalf of BBRI, the Federation of Belgian Contractors and Engineers without Frontiers (IzG). www.cstc.be/go/cachemire He has been on several missions in Pakistan in the period 2006 until 2009